COUNCIL'S PLEDGE TO HELP HOMELESS

Lacing up for Lisbon

OWEN Hawkins is set to travel across Europe to take on a marathon challenge in the name of charity.

The 10-year-old from Basingstoke will race in the Lisbon Marathon in Portugal alongside step mum Colleen Drummond, who will push him in a specially adapted sports wheelchair.

Owen suffers from Schwartz-Jampel syndrome, which leaves his muscles in a permanently tense state.

Borough to take control of support service from county

THE leader of Basingstoke and Deane's council has vowed not to "overlook the vulnerable in the drive for success" by pledging his support for a new pilot scheme to help the homeless in the borough.

Funding for Hampshire County Council's 'Supporting People' programme will be halved from next April – putting numerous homeless services across the county at risk of closure.

But Basingstoke and Deane Borough Council is set to "take control of [its] own destiny" by taking charge of a three year housing support service model separate from the county council.

The move would see the borough receive an annual revenue grant of £746,468 from the authority.

It would then assume all responsibility for commissioning the service – something council leader Clive Sanders has labelled as "vitally important".

He said: "On one hand we talk about this being a successful borough, but we don't want people at the bottom end, and the

By Christian Wilson

christian@observergroup.co.uk

vulnerable to be overlooked in this drive for success."

Cllr Sanders continued: "It's vitally important that we show as much commitment to helping the homeless as we do in helping to create more jobs.

"This would give us a process which would be within the control of local organisations, which is important as it's a local problem."

The borough council would also spend £100,000 of its own budget each year to help cover the drop in funding – with the county council currently contributing an annual amount of £1.3million through the Support People programme.

Basingstoke's council would work alongside local charities and housing associations in order to deliver housing.

The scheme is expected to be approved at a cabinet meeting next Tuesday evening.

"Heaven has claimed back one of its angels"

• Johnathan Brown died following a fatal car crash on the M3 near Micheldever on Monday, September 7

THE family of a Basingstoke man killed in a car crash earlier this month have paid tribute to their partner, son and brother with "a heart of gold".

Johnathan Brown died after his Peugeot 208 collided with a Ford Fiesta on the M3 near Micheldever on Monday, September 7.

He was immediately rushed to hospital with severe head injuries following the crash on the northbound carriageway between junctions eight and nine, but was pronounced dead later that day.

Mr Brown's family have since released a statement in honour of the 30-year-old – describing him as someone who "brought a smile to so many people".

It read: "In John, the world has lost an amazingly loving, partner, son, brother, uncle and friend, too soon."

"His family and friends will remember him forever."

"He brought a smile to so many people, he loved life and always made you smile when you were feeling down."

By Christian Wilson

christian@observergroup.co.uk

"He would always put people first before himself; he had a heart of gold."

"Heaven has claimed back one of its angels."

The statement continued: "He was taken away from his loved ones and friends too young and we will always hold him in our thoughts everyday."

"Rest in peace our angel and we will meet one day."

"Should anyone wish to make a donation for John, his chosen charity is the RSPCA."

Two people, believed to be the driver and front seat passenger of the Ford Fiesta, also received treatment for minor injuries at the scene by paramedics.

Police are investigating the incident, and have requested for anyone who saw what happened to contact Sergeant Graeme Hughes at the Serious Collision Investigation Unit on 101, quoting Operation Otto.

BASINGSTOKE: A 57-year-old man from Basingstoke had to be rescued after walking onto the tracks at Basingstoke railway station on Monday afternoon.

The man was led to safety without injury and taken to hospital for medical assessment.

A spokesperson for British Transport Police said: "We were called to Basingstoke station at 12.52pm to reports of a vulnerable person on the tracks."

Colleagues from Hampshire Constabulary and South Central Ambulance Service also attended, and a man was escorted from the line to a place of safety.

Battle of Britain

BASINGSTOKE AND DEANE: A service was held in honour of those who served during the Battle of Britain last Thursday morning.

The ceremony at Basingstoke War Memorial, in London Road, commemorated the 75th anniversary of the battle, with members of the Basingstoke branch of the RAF Association, and cadets of 443 Basingstoke Squadron ATC in attendance.

Basingstoke and Deane's mayor Anne Court laid a wreath as a mark of respect during the event.

Cllr Court said: "It really was emotional for all and such a wonderful and poignant tribute to the courage and bravery of all involved 75 years ago."

Rugby legend's hospice visit

NAOMI House welcomed one of the rugby greats for a tour of its newly refurbished centre on Sunday.

Legendary All Black winger Jonah Lomu visited the Sutton Scotney-based children's hospice and met with children, families and staff.

And the 6ft 5in all-time leading World Cup try scorer was impressed with what he saw at the centre, which has just undertaken a £4million revamp.

"I thought it was an amazing place and a charity with a really nice feel to it," said Jonah.

"It was an absolute pleasure to meet the children and families and staff that make use of the facilities. As a father myself and with the odd health complication of my own I fully understand how important a place like Naomi House and Jacksplace is for the community."

The former New Zealand international was in the area as part of the south coast leg of his UK tour, and announced that funds raised from an auction at his Southampton event on Wednesday, October 21 would go towards the charity.

Naomi House marketing manager Keith Wilson said: "Jonah is rugby's greatest living legend. "He spent time with absolutely everybody, and really seemed to understand the importance of the work we do here."

PCC's policing cuts branded a "disgrace"

HAMPSHIRE'S police and crime commissioner has been criticised over his decision to protect the amount of community officers in the area while cutting police constable positions.

The number of police officers working in the county has taken

By Christian Wilson

christian@observergroup.co.uk

a battering in recent years due to £80million worth of cuts to the service – with over 650 people losing their jobs since 2010.

Chairman of Hampshire Police Federation John Apter (left) called Hampshire police crime and commissioner Simon Hayes' (right) decision to prioritise PCSOs over PCs a "disgrace".

Despite £40m of additional cuts looming on the horizon, PCC Simon Hayes has insisted that the 334 Police Community Support Officers (PCSOs) in Hampshire will stay the same regardless.

Hampshire Police Federation chairman John Apter has met this announcement with disproval however, and has labelled the decision as a "kick in the teeth" for policing.

He said: "Our police force is being slashed to the bone to the extent where we've got officers struggling to investigate serious offences."

"To allow the number to be cut so short is a disgrace and it beggars belief that Mr Hayes is protecting one group and not the other.

"I'm not saying get rid of them as they are an integral part of the policing family, but it is a real kick in the teeth."

"There doesn't seem to be any logic in it as there has to be a balance."

Hampshire Police Federation previously predicted that 1,000 officers could lose their jobs by 2017, but Mr Hayes defended his decision to safeguard the "vital work" done by PCSOs.

The commissioner claimed that, rather than making existing officer's jobs harder by the drop in full-time staff, community officers would "free" them to focus on dealing with serious crime.

"PCs are under an extraordinary amount of pressure, and PCSOs can help with that by dealing with low-level criminality," said Mr Hayes.

"It's designed to free officers, and to benefit the police force, not hinder it."

"They provide a personal style of policing with the community, because they have the time to develop relationships that constables just don't have."

"It's important that we don't lose that link."

Pilot scheme to help borough's homeless

Deputy leader Terri Reid said: "We need to find a model that's financially sustainable and allows us to take control of our destiny, and this is it."

"With the continuing shrinking budgets from Hampshire County Council and the government, it's important that we protect ourselves from further cuts."

She continued: "If we do nothing, these cuts will have a massive impact on us all, so we need to help these people get their lives back on track."

The scheme would allow Worting Road based short-term accommodation centre The Joshua Tree and May Place House homeless hostel to remain open.

Cllr Reid added: "If people suffer, it impacts everyone through a knock on effect on finances and the health service.

"But this move will provide a stay of execution for crucial services such as The Joshua Tree and May Place."

"It will give people who need it another chance to rebuild their lives."

Basingstoke and Deane's cabinet will meet from 6.30pm on Tuesday at the council's civic offices in London Road.

AWE investigation

ALDERMaston: Environmental group Nuclear Awareness Group (NAG) has questioned why the Atomic Weapons Establishment (AWE) has not been prosecuted for its failure to treat 1,000 drums of waste by February last year.

NAG submitted a Freedom of Information request to the Office of Nuclear Regulation (ONR) for a copy of a report investigating Aldermaston-based AWE.

ONR ordered AWE to deal with the situation in 2007, but chose not to prosecute this April after the target date expired.

Appeal launched after razor blade attack

A 21-YEAR-OLD man was attacked with a razor blade during an assault in a Popley subway last Tuesday evening. The victim managed to knock the weapon from the hands of the unknown man after the blade had slashed his t-shirt.

He was then punched and pushed to the floor by his attacker, who proceeded to run from the scene with another man.

The incident took place in an underpass under Popley Way, between St Bede's Church and Abbey Court, at around 7.15pm, as the victim was walking with his fiancée.

Police have now launched an appeal for witnesses to locate the suspect, who is described as black, between 20- and 30-years-old, around 6ft tall and had an afro.

He was also wearing a black hoody with the hood down, a black tracksuit and black Nike trainers with a white tick logo.

The other man is described as white, in his mid 20s, about 5ft 8ins tall, of skinny build and with a mousey blonde cornrows haircut.

He was wearing a white fleece type jacket, with a picture of a black dragon on the back, blue jeans and blue Nike trainers with a yellow tick on the side.

OCT will give accurate diagnosis:

- AMD
- Diabetic Maculopathy
- Macular Hole
- Epiretinal Membrane
- Early detection of Glaucoma

*It is estimated that approximately 2% of people over the age of 40 will have Glaucoma.

*Statistics obtained from The International Glaucoma Association.

What is an OCT scan?

This practice has invested in the very latest OCT scanning technology.

An Optical Coherence Tomography (OCT) scan is a unique test which uses near-infrared light reflected off the retina to produce a high resolution 3-Dimensional scan of the retina and associated structures.

It is particularly useful in the assessment of patients with AMD, Diabetic Maculopathy, early detection of Glaucoma and the management of these diseases. The test is non invasive, quick and entirely painless.

Am I at risk of Glaucoma?

Are you over 40?
Do you have a family history of Glaucoma?
Are you short sighted?
Do you have diabetes?
Are you of African-Caribbean origin?

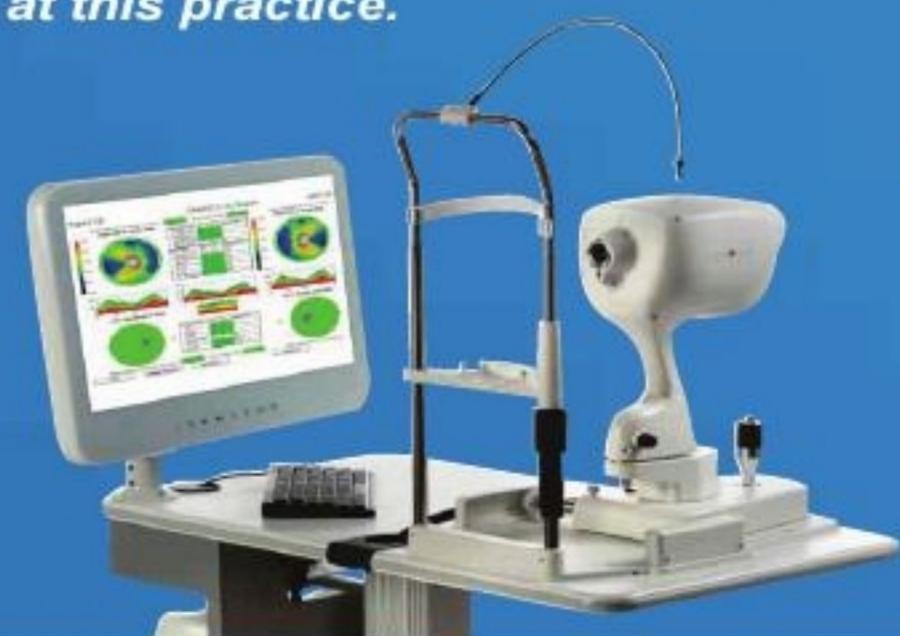

If the answer is yes to any of these questions, then you are at an increased risk and should definitely have your eyes tested regularly.*

Why has this practice invested in OCT?

We believe this advanced imagery allows us to detect and monitor early stages of diseases and as this examination is not available under the NHS, we make an additional charge for this scan. Please ask for further details.

This assessment of your eyes using OCT Technology will give us the most accurate diagnosis possible and help us give you the best advice to protect your sight and the health of your eyes.

Your eyes deserve the benefits of cutting edge technology available at this practice.

Hospital kicks off for charity

STAFF from two Hampshire hospitals will line up against each other for a special football match for charity next month.

A team from Basingstoke and North Hampshire Hospital will look to get one over on rivals Southampton General Hospital in the clash at the home of Basingstoke Town - The Camrose - on Sunday, October 4 at 2.30pm.

Entrance to the match is free, but organisers hope that spectators will give generously on the sidelines towards the Ark Cancer Centre Charity.

Basingstoke hospital porter Alex Nicholls said: "The players are covering the match fees, and Basingstoke Town have been terrific with their support in allowing us to play at The Camrose and by providing us with kit and footballs."

"We hope that there will be plenty of support for the Basingstoke team and that our fans will be able to join us in celebrating a victory for the home side."

Ark Cancer Centre Charity is a Basingstoke-based organisation, which is attempting to raise £5million towards building the area's first dedicated cancer treatment centre.

Charity trustee Mery Rees said: "I am grateful to the hospital teams for deciding to raise money for the charity.

"I'm sure it will be a memorable afternoon, and I hope that plenty of supporters turn out to cheer the two sides on."

Owen's marathon dream comes true

A BASINGSTOKE youngster is set to fulfil a dream 1,400 miles from home in the name of charity next month.

Owen Howkins suffers from an extremely rare genetic disorder called Schwartz-Jampel syndrome, which leaves his muscles in a permanently tense state.

For the last two years, the 10-year-old has been trying to take part in his first marathon in order to raise money to help other people, but has been turned down repeatedly.

Owen and Colleen are set to take on the Lisbon Marathon

By Christian Wilson

christian@observergroup.co.uk

He will finally get his chance on Sunday, October 18 however, after being accepted to take part in the Lisbon Marathon in Portugal, alongside step mum Colleen Drummond.

Colleen will push Owen around the 26-mile course in a specially adapted sports wheelchair, but insisted that the youngster's inspiration will be what gets the pair across the line.

She said: "He's so proud to be helping others, but that's nothing compared to what I feel for him, words can't even describe it."

"I know he's in pain all the time, but he never complains, and is always encouraging me - it's like something from a Rocky film!"

The pair are trying to raise £3,000 for chosen charity Make A Wish Portugal, with Owen aiming to "help as many people as possible" in the country that made his wish come true.

He said: "It's going to be great and I'm really looking forward to it."

"It's amazing how much support I've had, not just here but from other countries as well."

"Hopefully it will help as many people as possible from around the world."

Both the London Marathon and Basingstoke Half Marathon were among the races to turn the pair down, but dad Will is hoping that next month's challenge will lead to more marathons in the future.

"It was a real kick in the teeth to be told no, but the support from everyone has been phenomenal," said Will.

"Although Colleen is the work horse, Owen is the inspiration, and I'm really proud of both of them."

Colleen added: "Owen screamed at the top of his voice when we told him we'd got in, he was so happy."

"He has such an amazing soul, and is such a kind and generous little boy."

"He is what every athlete should aspire to be."

OLD BASING: A Hampshire county councillor will join pupils from St Mary's Junior School in Old Basing on their walk to school tomorrow morning at 8.15am.

Executive member for economy, transport and environment, Sean Woodward, was contacted by pupils to see what could be done about improving pedestrian routes in the village, due to increased traffic caused by work on the A30 Black Dam Roundabout.

Cllr Woodward said: "I want to see at first hand what the issues are and whether there is anything we can do to help."

Ambulance AGM

BASINGSTOKE: South Central Ambulance Service (SCAS) is holding its annual general meeting in Basingstoke next Wednesday, September 30.

The NHS Foundation Trust's members will meet at The Ark Conference Centre in Dinwoodie Drive from 3.30pm to 5.30pm, with members of the public invited to attend.

The meeting will look back at the service's achievements over the year, and address challenges facing the trust.

Low carbon loans

BASINGSTOKE AND DEANE: Residents can get a helping hand cutting energy use and bills from Basingstoke and Deane Borough Council this winter. The council is offering low-interest loans for energy efficiency improvements to homes in its low carbon initiative.

Resident questions cemetery motive

A FARMER has labelled Basingstoke and Deane's council a "theatrical joke" over its decision to approve plans to build a new cemetery in North Waltham.

Village resident Patrick Sweeney accused the authority of disregarding the concerns of the public for financial gain by choosing a site in Stockbridge Road over seven miles away from the town centre as Basingstoke's new cemetery site.

The town's Worthing Road cemetery is due to reach its full capacity within the next five years.

But Mr Sweeney – who owns Village Farm off Mary Lane – has questioned why a more easily accessible cemetery couldn't have been built somewhere on the council's planned 2,000-acre Manydown housing development, which borders Basingstoke on its western side.

"It appears that the borough council is more interested in making money out of their land developments across Basingstoke than the priority of this cemetery being situated in the town," he said.

"There are other sites used as part of Manydown that could be used, but they're only interested in developing and selling houses for a massive profit.

"I think they're a theatrical joke

By Christian Wilson

christian@observergroup.co.uk

and a planning joke these days."

Council portfolio holder for regulatory services and the environment, Hayley Eachus, said: "After considering other possible locations, this land was chosen as the preferred site by cabinet last September.

"It would not be possible to provide a cemetery to be ready in five years' time on Manydown without affecting the number of new homes allocated for the site in the emerging local plan."

Basingstoke and Deane Borough Council approved their plans for a cemetery at North Waltham at a development control committee meeting on Wednesday, September 9.

The council was due to make a decision on whether to approve plans to build a new £160million hospital in North Waltham 2.4 miles away from the cemetery at the same meeting, but the verdict on the development was delayed until November.

Mr Sweeney, 85, feels the change in the dates was made with the council's housing plan in mind, with a government planning inspector set to begin a public enquiry of the borough's local plan next month.

He added: "I've got nothing against a cemetery being in North Waltham, but the people that need this one are in Basingstoke, and so that's where it should be.

"Why have they delayed the decision on the hospital and not done the same for this? It's a deliberate attempt to muddy the waters of the inspector's report prior to his enquiry."

• North Waltham farmer Patrick Sweeney

Brighton Hill residents to plan future

BRIGHTON Hill residents are being urged to work together with a "common purpose" to help shape a community plan for the area.

Two planning information meetings will take place over the next 10 days to give them a chance to have their say on what they want for their community.

Members of the public will also be able to voice their concerns over issues relating to them as part of a planning group working with Basingstoke and Deane Borough Council.

Cabinet member for communities, service delivery and improvement, Robert Tate, said: "The aim of creating a community plan for your area is to improve the quality of life for people living and working in Brighton Hill.

"This means information and resources can be better shared between partner organisations and communities, so that local priorities or constraints are understood."

The meetings are tomorrow, September 24, from 7pm at the Church of Christ the King in Sullivan Road, and on October 3 from 10am at the Café Project on the same street.

Cllr Tate added: "This type of project can bring the community together in a common purpose and give residents the opportunity to help shape the area where they live."

Grants on offer to connect businesses to better broadband

THE leader of Hampshire County Council has urged small businesses to apply for a helping hand upgrading their broadband connections.

Government grants of up to £3,000 are being offered to businesses across the county as part of the £40million of funds generated through broadband connection vouchers.

The council has joined forces with neighbouring authorities to claim a share of the funding.

The Hampshire scheme is being run by Dorset County Council and is part of the greater Bournemouth City Scheme.

Cllr Roy Perry is calling on local companies to take advantage of the offer.

He said: "This is great news for Hampshire businesses.

"Whether they are start-ups in town, or farms in the countryside, I would urge them to apply as soon as possible as the scheme is funded on a first-come, first-served basis.

"Superfast broadband is a vital tool for economic success, and any additional opportunities which will help Hampshire businesses are very much welcomed."

Companies can check whether they are eligible for grants by visiting connectionvouchers.co.uk.

THE number of people claiming jobseekers allowances in Basingstoke has dropped by 245 since last year.

It means Basingstoke is bucking the national trend that saw unemployment rise for a third consecutive month – the first time this has happened since 2011.

A total of 651 people were registered as out of work in Basingstoke throughout August, a narrow drop of nine from the previous month's statistics.

Basingstoke MP Maria Miller was quick to highlight the role of Basingstoke and Deane Borough Council in the steady improvement.

She said: "Basingstoke has one of the lowest levels of unemployment in the country.

"This is because we have a forward thinking local council investing in attracting new businesses to our town.

"And it's down to a skilled local workforce and a strong economy that is encouraging more inward investment."

Last Wednesday's results also showed a 29 per cent decrease in the amount of unemployed people aged between 18 and 24 claiming benefits in the borough, with the 145 claimants mirroring the findings from July.

A total of 369 full-time and part-time jobs have been created by the newly constructed John Lewis at home and Waitrose store in Basing View, which is due to open its doors for the first time on Thursday, November 12.

And Job Centre Plus is predicting more big businesses to follow suit and move to the borough in a move that "can only be good for the area."

Basingstoke job centre manager Sarah Crewe-Read said: "When you see months of rising unemployment everywhere else and then see our rate staying down, it's obviously great to see.

"It's a sign of the buoyant market in Basingstoke, and the John Lewis opening will do big things and can only be good for the area.

"I would hope other big employers follow their example and move to the area as well, but regardless of that, the statistics are really good news."

However this month major Basingstoke employer, energy firm SSE, announced 600 jobs in the town are to be moved to its central hub in Reading next year.

• Basingstoke MP Maria Miller

The company said no redundancies are being made but concerns were raised that problems caused by commuting could force workers to have to leave.

• A total of 369 new jobs have been created by the new John Lewis at home and Waitrose store in Basing View, which is opening on Thursday, November 12

Creepy crawlies

OLD BASING: Residents at an Old Basing care home welcomed a range of reptiles and creepy crawlies last Tuesday.

Snakes, snails, spiders and millipedes were among the creatures from Zoolab visiting Basingfield Court Residential Care Home in Huish Lane.

Care home activities leader Julia Pattenden said: "The thought of holding a snake or giant snail is slightly nerve-racking, but when the critters got closer everyone became very curious and couldn't wait to have a stroke."

WITH Christmas still nearly three months away, many of you would think that there is still plenty of time for you to do your festive shopping and restaurant booking for your parties, so that this can be a Christmas to remember.

However, how would you feel if I were to tell you that many people book venues for their Christmas meals during the months of September and October?

This is to avoid the sudden rush of demands many restaurants face during the hectic festive period, where hundreds of work places, families, friends and so on are scrambling around to get the best deals and menus, with some paying the ultimate price of not getting the restaurant that they really wanted.

Don't get yourself in that situation this Christmas.

It is the one time of the year where planning is fundamentally important, as nobody wants to be left disappointed that the presents they wanted to buy or the restaurants that they wanted to book were unavailable.

Christmas is a time for family and friends to enjoy each other's company, and we want to be part of this process of happiness.

So if you are reading this and have had suddenly thought of a whole host of ideas to make this the greatest Christmas possible for yourself, your friends, your family or even your colleagues, then you have come to the right place.

Here you will be able to read and see some of the potential restaurants that are available this festive season, whilst also browsing what gifts you can purchase.

Lesley uses Community Spirit to help the local community

A feeling of involvement in and concern for one's local community'. That is the meaning of 'Community Spirit', so when business owner Lesley Sangwell opened her shop in Thatcham just over a year ago, it was her sole ambition to offer top quality pre-loved clothes, toys, small electrical items and gifts for sale, all from kind donations generating proceeds which go directly in to small local non-profit making groups.

Lesley had previously worked as Manager of a High Street charity shop, but after hearing that more and more people wished for their items to support local groups decided to launch Community Spirit. The shop has now relocated to the High Street in Thatcham with parking right outside. A large and varied stock is always on display and donations of good quality items are always needed to help support local groups – collection of items can also be arranged. Follow us on Facebook for more information.

Celebrate Christmas in style at The Spotted Dog

THE Spotted Dog in Cold Ash has undergone many changes, especially over the last 12 months including a £250,000 refurbishment following a major fire. The renovation now boasts a large drinking and eating area, a re-fitted kitchen and a new bespoke solid oak bar.

Owner Piero Pagliaroli, along with his head chef John Cowan have worked hard to create a new menu which not only offers traditional English fayre, but many continental dishes and are delighted with the positive feedback about the quality of their homemade food. Comments posted on Tripadvisor® have resulted in the pub winning a certificate of excellence and are now listed in the top three in the area with clientele writing about friendly staff, attentive service and fantastic food.

Everything on the menu is prepared on the premises, with fresh ingredients, many of which are locally sourced. They have also installed a Lava grill for cooking delicious steaks and fish. All the steaks and roasting joints are 21-day matured, sourced from the Highlands of Scotland and South West England, supplied by Vicars of Ashampstead.

OCTOBER not only brings Halloween into the Malls but also a variety of entertainments to make your shopping experience even more interesting and exciting, so it's never a dull time!

Local Craft Day on Saturday 3rd October will give you the chance to select some really unusual Garden Goodies and ornaments for Christmas presents, these range from brushwood owls, reindeer, coir mats all with animal themes. Very reasonably priced for all the family to enjoy so don't miss the chance of something unique. You can also have your name or initials embroidered onto almost anything together with printed items and T shirts by STS Embroidery. Orders will also be taken for Christmas if required. The ABC Winklebury Playgroup will also be ordering a range of handmade bags, to raise funds for the group, and finally a chance to enjoy some organic fruit and veg from Riverside Organics.

The Malls then hosts its European and Craft Market from 5th to 10th October, with Egyptian Textiles, Italian Biscuits & Olives, Chocolates Dreams, Gourmet Hog Roast & Wraps, Traditional Sweets, Doughnuts, plus Handmade Leather Belts and Native Crafts from Ecuador. So don't miss this treat at the beginning of October.

The Scout groups are always up for a challenge, and the 8 metre high wall is no mean feat to come and challenge yourself on Saturday 17th October. Anyone can have a try as there are 3 degrees of difficulty.

We always like to support the Mayors Charity each year and 2015 is no exception. On the Mall on 23rd October in support of the Ark Cancer Centre with cycling & rowing to "Pile on the Miles and Pull in the Pounds".

The local Hampshire & IOW Air Ambulance "lands" in Castle Square on Saturday 24th October, where you can support this fantastic charity with a donation or purchase of merchandise. Climb aboard to check out the cockpit and see how the injured person is transported to hospital for life saving treatment.

Mind-reading and illusions

AN EVENING of tricks and illusions await at The Forge in Basingstoke, when magician Luke Jermay takes to the stage on Saturday.

The 30-year-old entertainer from Essex, who has published 40 books so far in his career, is currently on his 'Sixth Sense' tour.

And Luke will be reading the minds of audience members in order to reveal something about their past, present and future during the show.

"The show is highly interactive and no two shows are ever the same as we deal with the contents of the audiences minds, which are their personal stories, histories and thoughts," Luke told the Observer.

"This keeps it really exciting for me and means that every night amazing, unexpected things happen."

"The interactive nature of the show creates a connection and a bond with the audience that changes it from being 'my show' to 'our show', and that is a really amazing feeling."

"This is without a doubt the best thing about performing live."

By James Richings

After learning to read tarot cards as a teenager, Luke became hooked on the world of intuition.

The ability to reveal someone's past, present and future whilst showing off some incredible illusions with playing and tarot cards has put Luke in the same category with fellow magicians and mentalists such as Derren Brown and Dynamo.

And with 40 published books and manuscripts, two podcasts and various appearances on television programmes, including an appearance on 'Dynamo: Magician Impossible', the mentalist hopes to inspire a new generation of magicians with his tour.

"You need to learn as much as you can about what has come before - the history of magic and mind reading is rich and inspiring," Luke added.

"By knowing where the art comes from, we can better it by taking it into new uncharted waters."

The show starts at 8pm, and tickets cost between £15 and £17.

Hardeep Singh Kohli: Big Mouth Strikes Again

ECCENTRIC Scotsman Hardeep Singh Kohli will be at the Phoenix Theatre and Arts Centre in Bordon tomorrow evening, September 24.

He is stopping off at the Station Road venue during a UK tour with his show 'Big Mouth Strikes Again'.

And the comedian, writer, broadcaster and journalist counts himself over and above all, a narrator.

"I'm a storyteller," he said, "regardless of the medium I tell stories."

"And I don't actually prepare myself before I go out on stage!"

"Me onstage is just an extension

By James Richings

of me in real life, and how do you prepare for real life?"

After leaving university, Hardeep has dipped in and out of various jobs in the media and entertainment.

On joining the BBC in the '90s, he worked as a director for a number of children's television shows whilst also overseeing Janet Street-Porter's show, 'Reportage'.

Since leaving the corporation in 1996, the 46-year-old has worked writing for national newspapers, starring in television shows, presenting radio programmes and creating comedy shows which have been showcased at many Edinburgh Festivals.

"Broadcasting had an exotic attraction since I was wee," Hardeep said.

"I knew that's what I was going to do when I finished university, but I never wanted to be in front of camera - although it inevitably happened, and comedy followed shortly after."

And with his first show in Bordon just a day away, he hopes to make a good impression.

"I love making folk laugh, making them forget their worries and giving them sore sides," he said.

"Ultimately it's about community and connecting with people. Comedy is a shared experience and it's humbling to be part of that."

"Also, everyone can expect a raucous, fun story telling plus laughter, love and other stuff that begins with 'L'."

"It's a new show and I love doing it."

'Big Mouth Strikes Again' starts at 8pm, with tickets costing £12.

Seat unleashes new Leon Cupra upgrades to power and steering

SEAT are known for producing mean looking, popular cars on our roads for years.

The new Seat Leon Cupra is now available and is likely to be a well-liked addition to the Seat catalogue.

It now comes with a front-axle lock to improve traction and handling of the front-wheel-drive car.

The maximum locking force is 1,600 Newton metres and, in extreme cases, 100 per cent of the drive can be sent to one wheel.

Its sensitive control has no negative impact on steering and the driver experiences a relaxed steering feel which requires less effort and less hand movement around the wheel.

One of the biggest new features of the Leon Cupra is the speed and power upgrades.

It can do 62mph in just 5.7 seconds or 5.8 seconds with the manual gearbox and has a top speed of 155mph.

By James Richings

The performance of the Leon Cupra can be raised even further with the optional Sub8 Performance Pack, which includes a set of Brembo brake callipers, an exclusive wheel design and special tyres.

The interior of the car has also been modified for the driver's needs with chrome trim elements, with a high-gloss black available as an option.

The increased power output is easy to hear as the modified exhaust system gives the sports engine an even more refined tone.

The Leon Cupra also states its position as one of the top models in the Seat range with its progressive steering, dynamic chassis control, front-axle differential lock, high-performance brake system and 19-inch wheels.

The new Seat model comes with the full-LED headlamps and the LED rear lights as standard.

End of the road for your vehicle?

Responsible drivers scrap their vehicles at an Authorised Treatment Facility (ATF).

Because only an ATF can legally scrap a vehicle.

That means any pollutants will be made safe before it's recycled in an environmentally friendly way.

Bison blow title rivals away with double win

Collard heads to Silverstone as season nears end

ROB Collard will look to right the wrongs of his shocking weekend at Rockingham in the penultimate round of races in the British Touring Car Championships (BTCC) on Sunday.

The Hook-based driver will hope to drastically improve on his scoreless showing earlier this month at the Northamptonshire track when the BTCC rumbles into the home of British racing at Silverstone on Saturday.

His poor performance on Sunday, September 6, which saw him finish 18th, 28th and dead last in the three races, paled in comparison to his outing in the previous round at Knockhill just two weeks earlier.

Collard was at his very best that day as he picked up his third win of the campaign at the Dunfermline track, while also claiming a place on the podium on his way to a haul of 37 points.

The West Surrey Racing (WSR) driver currently sits in 10th spot in the rankings with 171 points – 115 behind current leader Gordon Shedden.

Just this weekend and an end of season showdown at Brands Hatch next month remain on this year's calendar.

BASINGSTOKE Bison's title aspirations were given a major boost at the weekend after they charged to the top of the table with two crushing wins.

The Herd stunned rivals Manchester Phoenix with a superb 6-2 victory on Saturday evening at the Basingstoke Arena that saw them register 34 shots on goal.

And the Bison topped that just 24 hours later as they tore reigning English Premier League (EPL) champions the Telford Tigers to pieces on the road in a fine 4-1 victory.

Basingstoke suffered their first loss of the season away to the Peterborough Phantoms a week earlier, and looked desperate to put that 5-3 defeat behind them on their return to Planet Ice.

Despite an early attacking onslaught that saw opposition goaltender Stephen Fone called into action several times, they found the Phoenix a tough nut to crack.

Ciaran Long eventually broke the visitor's resistance as the period wound down however, after linking up with Miroslav Vantroba and Tomas Karpov to power the puck home.

But the Herd were immediately caught out at the other end as James Archer capitalised on a quick transition from Manchester to find the net on 19:17.

Doug Shepherd's side made their dominance count in the final 10 minutes of the second period however, as Karpov combined with Vantroba again to score at the second attempt.

Two more goals then quickly followed, with Declan Balmer and Joe Greener both beating Fone within seconds of each other to establish a three goal lead.

Mark Thomas pulled one goal back for the Phoenix after beating Tomas Hiadlovsky from a tight angle 35 seconds into the final period.

But Bison weren't to be denied a deserved win, as Stuart Mogg and Alan Lack each got on the score sheet to make it 6-2.

Basingstoke took longer to get in their stride the following evening at Telford Ice Rink, before finally taking the lead on 34:57 as Shaun Thompson scored from a Joe Rand pass.

Nathan Salem equalised early in the final period, before Greener and Ryan Watt both scored in seven devastating seconds with 10 minutes remaining to give the Herd a 3-1 lead.

And Karpov wrapped up the win on 58:02 to ensure that Basingstoke top the early season running, ahead of next Saturday's home match with newly promoted team the Hull Pirates and a trip to the Bracknell Bees on Sunday.

Rose ready for curtain closer

JUSTIN Rose warmed up for the final of the PGA's FedEx Cup tomorrow with a tie for 13th place at the BMW Championship.

The North Hampshire golfer finished 11 shots behind new world number one Jason Day at Conway Farms in Illinois.

But Rose's 11-under-par score was enough to secure him a place at the season ending Tour Championship event after climbing to 12th position in the standings for the 30 player tournament.

The 35-year-old would have to win at East Lake in Georgia and hope that none of his rivals finished highly on the scorecard to stand any chance of claiming the $10 million prize on offer to the golfer who tops the chart.

If the improbable is to happen, he will have to play better than he did in Illinois however, after a one-under-par opening round score of 70 saw him trail Australia's Day by nine shots.

The world number eight showed his class the following day though – claiming birdies at 2, 3, 4, 8, 9, 12, 13 and 18 on his way to a score of 64 (-7).

Bogeys at the 10th and 16th holes then limited Rose to a -1 score on Saturday, before he recovered well from a triple bogey at the fifth hole on the final day to pick up a score of 69, and finish the tournament at 11-under par.

Ladies win again

FOOTBALL: Basingstoke Town Ladies continued their superb start to the season by beating Downend Flyers 4-0 in the Women's FA Cup at the weekend.

Striker Lindsey Beverley's brace – her fourth goal in two games – paved the way for the victory, with Lianne Hill and Katie Randell also getting their names on the scoresheet.

Victory ensured safe passage through to the next round of the competition, where they will host Fulham Foundation on Sunday, October 11.

Basingstoke are next in action in the league this Sunday, when they will travel to face Woodley United.

Clean sweep

HOCKEY: Basingstoke Hockey Club's ladies teams achieved a clean sweep of victories on Saturday.

The firsts saw off Fareham Hockey Club 2-0, the seconds beat Guildford 6-0 and the thirds defeated Romsey 3-0.

Elsewhere, Basingstoke Mens firsts were narrowly beaten 2-1 away in a friendly at Woking, and will line up against Wallingford in another exhibition match before the start of the new season next month.

'Stoke beaten

RUGBY: Basingstoke RFC opened the new campaign with a sizable defeat away to Weybridge Vandals at Brownacres.

Gareth Hatherley-Hurford's side were comprehensively beaten 30-7 by the team from Walton-on-Thames to ensure that they stayed rooted to the bottom of the London South West Two table.

Basingstoke will play their first home match of the season on Saturday afternoon against KSC Old Boys.

Mixed fortunes

FOOTBALL: Overton United and Hartley Wintney both claimed victories over the weekend, while Whitchurch lost their second game on the bounce.

Overton claimed their first win of the Hampshire Premier League season on Saturday after seeing off Paulsgrove 4-1.

Wintney maintained their perfect start to the season with a 2-0 victory at home to Cheshington and Hook.

And Whitchurch were toppled by Verwood Town by the same scoreline to continue the Jam Boys' poor start to the season.

GILKES GOAL EARNED TOWN ANOTHER DRAW

BASINGSTOKE Town have now gone 11 games without a win after they were held to a 1-1 draw at home to fellow strugglers Wealdstone on Saturday.

As has so often been the case this season Town were unfortunate not to emerge with all three points after putting in one of their most accomplished displays of the season.

Winger Harrison Gilkes' poached goal helped drag his side level after going behind early on, with the point ensuring that the Dragons climbed off the foot of the National League South table on goal difference.

With just five points now from a possible 33 available though, manager Jason Bristow is in desperate need of that elusive first win, and tried something different by deploying his players in a new 4-2-3-1 formation.

Basingstoke were lucky not to fall behind inside the opening five minutes, as midfielder Scott Davies rattled keeper Aaron Howe's crossbar with an outrageous effort from fully 30 yards. But the home side's luck didn't hold out for much longer as Wealdstone went ahead in a very fortuitous fashion, as Matthew Ball's 13th minute shot took a wicked deflection of Jay Gasson to spin into the far corner.

Basingstoke responded positively to the setback however, with striker Chris Flood forcing a save from stopper Jonathan North, and then heading a chance wide from close range. The visitors did well to neutralise Basingstoke's threat better in a more cagey second half, and may have grabbed the three points but for a superb double save from Howe to block two point blank efforts from Joshua McLeod-Urquhart from inside the six yard box.

Substitute Lloyd Macklin looped a volleyed chance onto the roof of the net late on, but Basingstoke struggled to mount a much-needed winner as they were once again left frustrated at The Camrose.

The Dragons will now get a welcome break from the league, with Bristow's men hosting Farnborough in the Hampshire Senior Cup last night as the Observer went to press.

Town will then line up at home to Slough Town in the second qualifying round of the FA Cup on Saturday.
